

"Man... can go up against gravitation in a balloon, and why should he not hope that ultimately he may be able to stop or accelerate his drift along the Time-Dimension, or even turn about and travel the other way"

H.G. Wells, The Time Machine

"If we could travel into the past, it's mind-boggling what would be possible. For one thing, history would become an experimental science... The possible insights into our own past and nature and origins would be dazzling... it's certainly worth exploring"

Carl Sagan, NOVA interview, October 12, 1999

"Time is the worst place, so to speak, to get lost in"

Douglas Adams, The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy

"Each time you fly from North America to Australia, a day is taken away from you when you cross the International Date Line. All I know is that for one 24-hour period in the history of Earth, it appears I had no being"

Bill Bryson, In a Sunburned Country

"Time is a companion that goes with us on a journey. It reminds us to cherish each moment, because it will never come again"

Captain Jean-Luc Picard,
Star Trek: The Next Generation
